

Syresham Parish Council

Member Code of Conduct

As a parish councillor, your primary duty is to represent the views of all residents within your parish and ward. Whether or not you were elected as part of the four-yearly cycle of elections (contested or uncontested) or were later co-opted into post (that is, chosen by councillors themselves at a public meeting), you retain the same status.

Legal basis If you were elected or co-opted, your appointment was made under the Local Elections (Parishes and Communities) (England and Wales) Rules 2006.

KEY POINTS

As a councillor, you must

Attend meetings when summoned to do so; the notice to attend a council meeting is, in law, a summons, because you have a duty to attend.

Consider, in advance of the meeting, the agenda and any related documents which were sent to you with the summons.

Take part in meetings and consider all the relevant facts and issues on matters which require a decision including the views of others expressed at the meeting.

Take part in voting and respect decisions made by the majority of those present and voting.

Ensure, with other councillors, that the council is properly managed.

Represent the whole electorate, and not just those who voted for you.

Work within the Code of Conduct.

Apologies may be given in advance of the meeting where these will be noted, however The Local Government Act 1972 s85(1) states if a council member has not attended a council meeting for 6 consecutive months from the date of last attendance, then you will be automatically disqualified.

A resolution to extend the 6 month absence under Section 85 of the Local Government Act 1972 must be given prior to the 6 months expiry date.

What you must not do is

Come to a meeting to make decisions where you have already made up your mind (this is called predetermination).

Issue an instruction to the Clerk or a Contractor (the Clerk takes instructions from the council as a whole body, not individual councillors, except for the Chair who has been elected to do this).

Never act 'on behalf of the Council' in the organisation of any function or service (unless you have been given authority by the Chair or council to do so)

Your duties will include

Having responsibility for running local services which may include open spaces, play areas and potentially much more.

Helping to decide on how much to raise through the council tax in order to deliver your council's services (Precept).

Influencing and shaping the long-term development policy for the parish, and as part of the planning process, comment on planning applications in the parish.

Improve the quality of life and the environment in their local area.

Working to identify issues which are important to the lives of the residents you represent.

Working to bring about improvements through local projects, lobbying other service providers and working in partnership with other parishes and agencies.

Handling casework

During your time in office, you will find that residents may approach you for advice or support. As well as looking for support, they will be looking for answers and solutions. Understanding the nature and scale of the problem presented will often require you to use your judgement. Some people may try to use you or may avoid telling you everything you need to know.

Avoid promising to sort out every problem but do offer a sympathetic ear. While you can use your knowledge, contacts and advocacy skills to assist people, it is best to try and get people to help themselves. Having identified what the problem is, you should communicate with the Chair, Vice Chair or Clerk at the earliest opportunity so that the issue can be noted. It may already have been raised previously by the same person or be a sign of a wider and more ranging problem. You may want to put your concerns or questions in writing, although most councillors find that a quick face to face discussion, telephone call or email is quicker and easier in sorting out casework problems.

The parish council and its councillors have many years of experience and network contacts that can support you. Be ready to share your casework with them, and please do not act alone or on behalf of the council unless you have had prior permission.

SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION

The Members' Code of Conduct is intended to promote high standards of behaviour amongst Councillors.

The Code is underpinned by the following seven Nolan principles of public life, which should be adhered to when interpreting the meaning of the Code. Councillors should behave with:

1. Selflessness – and act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not act to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their family or their friends.
2. Integrity – and should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

3. Objectivity – in carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits; choices should be made on merit.
4. Accountability – and are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
5. Openness – and should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
6. Honesty – and declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
7. Leadership – and should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

SECTION 3: INTERESTS

1. Registration of Interests

- 1.1 Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by your Council or your election or appointment to office (where that is later) you must register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendix A (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) and Appendix B (Other Registerable Interests).
- 1.2 You must ensure that your register of interests is kept up-to-date and within 28 days of becoming aware of any new interest in Appendix A or B, or of any change to a registered interest, notify the Monitoring Officer.

2. Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

- 2.1 Where a matter arises at a meeting in which you have an interest in Appendix A, you must declare the interest (unless it is sensitive - see section 5 below), not participate, or participate further, in any discussion or vote further on the matter and must not remain in the room unless granted a dispensation.

3. Other registerable interests

- 3.1 Where a matter arises at a meeting in which you have an interest in Appendix B, you must declare the interest. You may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting but must not take part in any vote on the matter unless you have been granted a dispensation.

4. Non-registerable interests

- 4.1 Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to your own financial interest (and is not a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest) or your own wellbeing or is otherwise to your advantage or relates to a financial interest or wellbeing or is otherwise to the advantage of a relative, friend or close associate, you must disclose the interest and not vote on the matter unless granted a dispensation. - 4.3 Where the matter referred to in paragraph 4.2 affects the financial interest to a greater extent than if affects the financial interests of the majority of inhabitants of the area affected by the decision and a reasonable member of the public knowing all the facts would believe that it would affect your view of the wider public interest, you must not vote on the matter unless granted a dispensation. You may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.

5. Sensitive Interests

- 5.1 Where you consider (and the Council's Monitoring Officer agrees) that the nature of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, or other interest is such that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to you or a person connected with you being subject to intimidation or violence, it is a "sensitive interest" for the purposes of the Code. The details of the sensitive interest do not need to be disclosed to a meeting, although the fact that you have a sensitive interest must be disclosed.

APPENDIX B - OTHER REGISTERABLE INTERESTS

1. Any body of which you are in a position of general control or management and to which you are appointed or nominated by the Council;
2. Any body-
  - exercising functions of a public nature;
  - directed to charitable purposes; or
  - one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union) of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management;
3. Any gifts or hospitality worth more than an estimated value of £10 which you have received by virtue of your office, or a series of gifts or hospitality, from the same source within any 12-month period which together are worth more than an estimated value of £10.

PART 2: GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY OFFERED TO COUNCILLORS

1. General Principals

- 1.1 Councillors should treat with caution any offer of a gift, favour or hospitality that is made to them. Whilst the person or organisation making the offer may be doing so entirely without expectation of gain, the public may see it differently if that person or organisation is doing business, or seeking to do business with the Council. Councillors should ask themselves “Would I have been given this if I was not on the Council?”
- 1.2 It is essential that any suggestion of improper influence should be avoided. When receiving offers of gifts and hospitality, Councillors should be particularly sensitive as to their timing in relation to decisions which the Council may be taking. For example, hospitality must not be accepted knowingly from interested parties during the tendering period of a contract, or whilst an application for planning permission or some other kind of permission/decision is being considered by the Council.
- 1.3 Councillors may come into contact with individuals seeking to enhance the prospects of their business. Sometimes suppliers (or potential suppliers/tenderers for services) make approaches to Councillors with a view to demonstrating a particular product or service. In order to avoid suspicion of unhealthy influence, Councillors should ensure that such offers are advised to appropriate officers.
- 1.4 As with all other aspects of this Code, Councillors should be confident that whatever they do should be seen to be an example to the community of proper conduct and behaviour.

2. Registering Gifts and Hospitality

- 2.1 This Code of Conduct sets out the requirement for Councillors to register the receipt of any gift or hospitality worth £10 or over that they receive in connection with their official duties as a Councillor. If in doubt as to the value, the Councillor should register the offer anyway. An accumulation of gifts from the same source over a short period that adds up to £10 or more should also be registered. The Member must register the gift or hospitality and its source by completing a written declaration within 28 days of receiving it.
- 2.2 The Council will maintain a register of gifts and hospitality received by Councillors where the value is £10 or more in value. The register is maintained by the Council's Proper Officer on behalf of the Monitoring Officer. Members should immediately notify the Proper Officer of any such gifts or hospitality received and enter the relevant details in the register. The register will be made available to the public via the Council's web site. It will be updated at least quarterly.
- 2.3 Councillors do not need to register gifts and hospitality that are not related to their role as a Councillor.

Appendix C - Arrangements for Making Complaints

If a person wishes to make a complaint about a councillor under the Code of Conduct, it should be addressed to:
